God Is in the Details
A Bible Discussion Study

Theme:
God sees, cares for, and works through every part of our lives.

Key passage:
“So do not be afraid of them, for there is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known. What I tell you in the dark, speak in the daylight; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the roofs. Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground outside your Father’s care. And even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. So don’t be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. (Matthew 10:26–31)

Additional readings:
Psalm 139:1–18; Proverbs 16:9; Romans 8:28

Opening Prayer

God, thank You for being present in every detail of our lives. As we read and talk together, help us recognize Your care, bring our honest questions to You, and encourage one another with kindness. Give us open hearts and growing trust. Amen.

Read Together:
Matthew 10:26–31

Jesus tells His disciples not to be afraid. He reminds them that the Father knows even when a sparrow falls and that they are worth more than many sparrows. He even says that the hairs of their heads are numbered.

Discussion

1. What phrase or image from this passage stands out to you? Why?

2. What do Jesus' words teach us about God's attention and care?

3. Why might someone struggle to believe God cares about the small details of their life?

4. Where have you noticed God's presence in an ordinary moment?

5. What concern or detail in your life do you need to entrust to God?

6. How can we remind one another of God's care without minimizing someone's difficulties?

Explore Further

Psalm 139:1–18 — God knows us completely
What does this psalm say about being known by God? How might that bring comfort—or challenge—you?

Proverbs 16:9 — We plan, and God guides
How can we make thoughtful plans while remaining open to God's direction?

Romans 8:28 — God works amid life's circumstances
How might this verse encourage someone facing hardship? What does it not mean—that everything that happens is good, or that we can always see God's purpose right away?

Put It Into Practice

This week, pause once each day to notice one small sign of goodness, care, or strength. Write it down, and offer a brief prayer of thanks. If you're comfortable, share one with someone in your group.

Closing Prayer:

God, thank You for seeing us fully and caring about every part of our lives. Help us trust You with the details we understand and the ones that remain uncertain. When we face hardship, stay close to us and give us strength; help us support one another with compassion and hope. Open our eyes to Your goodness in ordinary moments, and guide us in the steps ahead. Amen.
