A Heart Turned Toward God

Psalm 95:1–7
Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.
Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song.

For the Lord is the great God, the great King above all gods. In his hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to him. The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land.

Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker; for he is our God and we are the people of his pasture, the flock under his care.

if only you would hear his voice,

1. What does Psalm 95 say about who God is and why He is worthy of worship?

2. The devotion says worship is more than singing or attending church. What are some everyday ways we can worship God?

3. What can make it difficult to turn our hearts toward God?

4. How can remembering God’s faithfulness help us trust Him when life feels uncertain?

5. What is one thing you’re grateful for, one concern you want to give to God, and one way you can honor Him this week?

Prayer: Lord, thank You for being worthy of our praise and always welcoming us near. Help us trust You, notice Your goodness, and honor You in our everyday lives. Amen.
