

Bible Discussion:
Finding Freedom in Faith in Jesus
11/10/2026

Scripture:

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;
32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.
33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?
34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.
35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.
36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. (John 8:31–36)

Jesus speaks about truth, discipleship, and freedom. As you discuss, remember that people may experience these ideas differently, and sharing is always optional.

1. What stands out to you in this passage?

2. In the devotion, freedom is described as a journey rather than an instant change. How does that idea connect with your experience of faith?

3. What burdens—such as fear, regret, worry, or pressure—can make people feel stuck?

4. What might it look like to bring those burdens honestly to God?

5. The devotion mentions prayer, asking for help, setting boundaries, and beginning again. Which of these could be a hopeful next step for someone facing a difficult season?

6. How can friends, family, or a faith community support someone without judging or trying to fix everything?

7. What does God's grace mean to you when you make a mistake or feel discouraged?

8. Is there one small step toward greater hope or peace you'd like to take this week?

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, thank You for meeting us in every part of our lives. Help us bring You the things that weigh on our hearts—our worries, regrets, fears, and struggles. Remind us that we don't have to face them alone.

Give us wisdom for the choices ahead, courage to ask for help when we need it, and patience as we grow. Teach us to release what we cannot control and take one hopeful step at a time. Help us support one another with compassion, kindness, and understanding.

When we feel discouraged, remind us of Your steady love. Guide us toward the freedom, peace, and new beginnings You offer. Be with each person here in the days ahead, and give us strength for today and hope for tomorrow. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Scriptural Seeds